

Pears Garlic Fest takes place in Meadville on Saturday

Pears Garlic Fest brings music and food to the Arc Community Greenspace in Meadville at 6:30 p.m. Saturday.

Historically hosted in Cambridge Springs by Jason Pears, Pears Garlic Fest brings both amateur and seasoned chefs to contribute their garlic-themed cuisine for judges and the public to enjoy. The most delectable dishes will be awarded as “most creative” and “best overall.”

To contribute a dish, email leescandinaro@gmail.com.

In the spirit of Second Saturday Night Live, this event features music from Crawford County rock bands Credit/No Credit (Josh Searle- White, Jennifer Helwarth, DP Warner, Phil Foxman and Lauren French) and Touch of Grey (John Hyatt, Warner, Searle-White, Helwarth, Joe Frisina and Richard Freysinger), covering hits from all eras and genres that will make you want to get up and dance.

Audiences are invited to play games, relax, try the food (bring a plate), listen to the music, and buy an “All you need is cLOVE” T-shirt.

The event is free but a suggested donation of $20 will benefit Not One More’s Hayden House, a women’s recovery house renovation project in Meadville.

Support for this event comes from the Meadville Neighborhood Center and ACE Hardware of Meadville.

Pears Garlic Fest, set for Saturday in Meadville, will have music and food.

Contributed photo

Copyright \(c\)2024 The Meadville Tribune, Edition 8/8/2024
Powered by TECNAVIA
